

The difference between Noon Sakinah and Tanween

	Noon Sakinah	Tanween
1.	Comes in the middle and at the end of a word	Comes only at the end of a word
2.	Can be in the verbs, nouns, and the prepositions (alharf)	Can only be in nouns
3.	It may be pronounced at the stop (waqf) or at joining while reciting continuously (wasl)	Can only be pronounced while joining
4.	While it can be pronounced it is shown written in the script	While being pronounced it can be written in the script